6:10 PM Presentation: Western Pond Turtle Conservation in Oregon

Susan Barnes, Regional Conservation Biologist with ODFW will present on Western Pond Turtles, one of Oregon's two native turtle species and is a Species of Greatest Conservation Need throughout its range. Pond Turtles are on the decline and need our help to survive into the future. Susan will talk about this turtle's ecology, activity patterns through the seasons, population trends and the threats they face. She will share with us how to create and enhance habitat for turtles on your land, how to report your turtle sightings, and what to do if you encounter a turtle on land or crossing a road. Several live turtles as well as a turtle shells and eggs will be on display.
